NEED

- The client needed a trusted recruiting partner, that specializes in conducting confidential searches.
- They wanted a team who would collaborate closely with top-tier executives across their portcos to identify exceptional talent.
- The organization was hiring for several high-level roles within their Accounting & Finance and Human Resource departments, so needed a partner who had expertise in both areas.
- They needed a flexible pricing model.

SOLUTIONS

- LaSalle offered a thorough retained search approach with a contingent pricing model.
- We provided white-glove service to their portfolio clients as well as the candidates we were recruiting.
- Our team identified leadership level talent across four different industries and markets.
